II. CENTER FOR DISEASE CONTROL ORDER – On September 4, 2020, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control published a nationwide residential eviction moratorium for non-payment of rent cases. This applies to all rental properties in the country—not just those with federally-backed/insured mortgages. The Order says that a housing provider cannot evict a “covered person,” which is a resident who signs a CDC declaration. For details on the CDC Order see the CDC information sheet. There are significant penalties, including monetary penalties and jail time, if you violate the CDC Order.

III. CARES Act - The federal C.A.R.E.S. Act prohibits certain landlords from filing evictions for non-payment of rent, from charging late fees and from serving “notices to vacate” between March 27 and July 25, 2020. Such landlords were required to serve 30-day notices for nonpayment of rent following the eviction moratorium. This rule only applied to federally backed mortgages or if the property participated in certain federal programs. If you do not know if CARES applied to your property, see the CARES information sheet and contact your lender and request confirmation.
